About Arrupe Jesuit

Arrupe Jesuit High School is a Jesuit Catholic, co-educational, college preparatory school that exclusively serves economically disadvantaged students from Denver's inner-city neighborhoods.

To prepare our students for success in college and beyond, Arrupe Jesuit maintains rigorous academic coursework, high standards of dress and behavior, and a school size that is able to provide a nurturing environment and individual attention. Over the past eleven years, over 50% of AJHS graduates were the first in their families to graduate high school, 100% of graduates have been accepted into college, and 87% were the first in their family to attend college.

The proceeds from Magis Night bridge the gap between what each family contributes (through the student's Work Study earnings and family tuition payments) and the total cost of their education, keeping tuition at an affordable level for our families. With average income for an Arrupe Jesuit family of four just over $35,000 this year, your partnership is crucial as, together, we work to break the cycle of poverty through work and education.

“ARRUPE JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL IS MY SECOND HOME. IF I NEED HELP WITH ANYTHING, MY TEACHERS ARE THERE FOR ME. THEY HELP ME MAINTAIN MY POSITIVE MINDSET WHEN I NEED THE SUPPORT THE MOST. THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO TO IMPACT ARRUPE, NOT ONLY FOR ME BUT FOR THE STUDENTS WHO WILL ATTEND IN THE FUTURE. YOU DO NOT GO UNNOTICED.”

— Elizabeth, Class of 2018
