"Arrupe Jesuit wasn't just a place to learn – it was a community that nurtured my personal growth and inspired me to dream bigger. Arrupe Jesuit gave me the confidence and skills to pursue my passion for science, leading me to complete my PhD in Biochemistry. The combination of academic rigor, community support, and work experience prepared me for the challenges of higher education and the connections I made there continue to support me as I advance in my career."

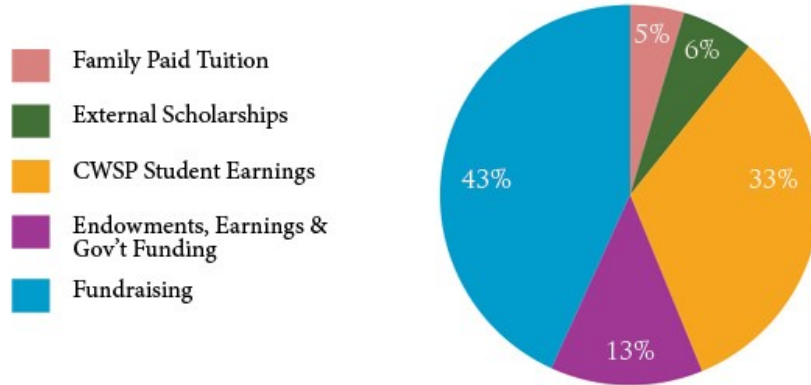

-Stephen AJHS '13, Regis University '17, CU Boulder '24
