About Arrupe Jesuit High School, www.arrupejesuit.com

Arrupe Jesuit High School is a Catholic, college preparatory school offering students with limited economic resources a premier educational experience through rigorous academics, formation in faith and discernment, and a unique work study program – fostering community, opportunity, leadership, and personal growth.

About Arrupe Jesuit Athletics:

The Athletics program consists of 10 varsity sports with a total of 160-200 students. We compete at the 3A & 4A classification in the Frontier League, a group consisting of 14 schools in the city, suburbs, and central mountain area of Denver (the towns of Leadville, Granby and Bailey). The goal of the program is to build women and men for others through the many formative opportunities athletics provides. We pride ourselves in providing a safe, motivating and unified environment where young women and men can challenge themselves to reach beyond their potential physically and mentally.
